The Significance of the Vijaya-yatra of His Holiness the Jagadguru of Sringeri

At a time when people were trapped in the quagmire of transmigratory existence in the midst of contradictory and confusing schools of thought, Lord Parameshwara incarnated in the glorious form of Jagadguru Sri Adi Shankara Bhagavatpadal. In a short life-span of 32 years, Bhagavatpadal re-established the Advaita Siddhanta, the true import of the beginningless Vedas. He uplifted mankind by peacefully bringing about a remarkable revolution in the minds of men without drastically upsetting people's existing beliefs. He instilled in them a proper understanding of and a deep faith in the true purport of the Vedas and thus showed both scholars and laymen the path to dharma and everlasting bliss.

The Jagadguru Shankaracharyas of Sringeri have, through the centuries, carried on the sacred work of Bhagavatpadal and have dedicated themselves to the protection of Sanatana Dharma.

His Holiness Jagadguru Sri Sri Bharathi Theertha Mahaswamigal, the 36th Jagadguru in this hoary, unbroken tradition of Sringeri, leads a life of renunciation, austerity and establishment in the Supreme. He is the world authority on Advaita Vedanta and is a scholar par excellence in the shastras.

Though immersed in His austerities, the fact that His Holiness has graciously undertaken a holy vijaya-yatra to the southern regions of India in order to grace people and to instil in them a deep faith in Sanatana Dharma and devotion to the Supreme, is of great significance to all followers of Sanatana Dharma. He tires not in His commitment to securing the welfare of mankind.

That He has consented to visit Chennai in the course of this vijaya-yatra, and that too after a long gap of 17 years, is undoubtedly a long-awaited, great blessing for the citizens of the city and neighbouring areas. He has also compassionately consented to make the Sri Sharadambal Temple, Meenakshi College Campus, Kodambakkam His abode from 19th to 23rd June, 2012 in the course of His stay at Chennai.

The Sri Sharadambal Temple at the Meenakshi College campus was first consecrated on 13 November, 1986 by His Holiness Jagadguru Sri Sri Abhinava Vidyatheertha Mahaswamigal, the 35th Shankaracharya of the Sringeri Sri Sharada Peetham together with the present Jagadguru. In the course of the upcoming stay at Meenakshi College, His Holiness Jagadguru Sri Sri Bharathi Theertha Mahaswamigal will be performing the Kumbhabhishekam of the newly renovated Sri Sharadambal Temple as well as the Bhumi-puja for a Multi-Speciality Hospital.

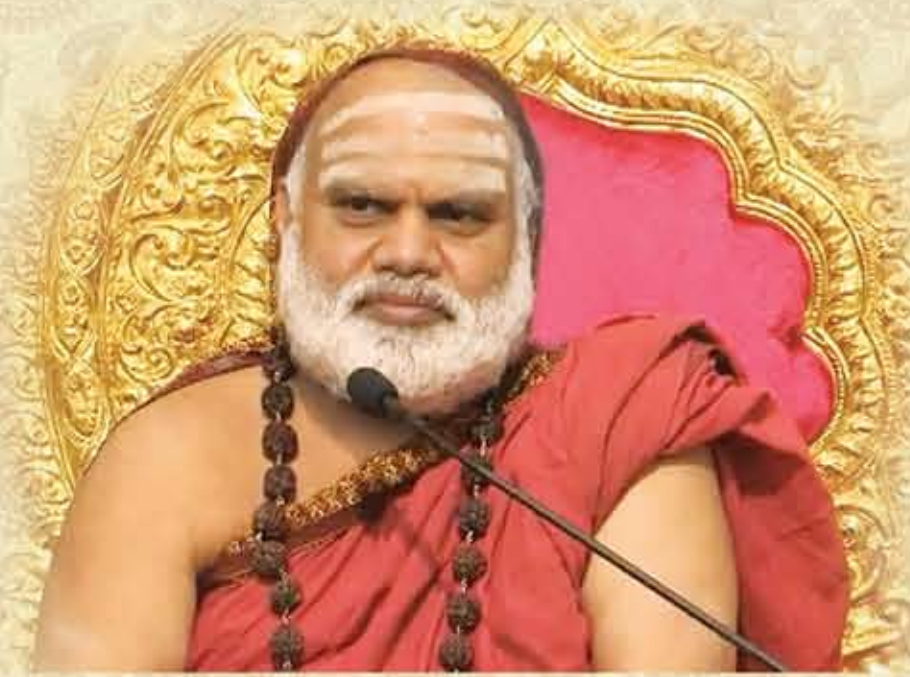

We invite all to utilize this unique opportunity to have His darshan and be truly blessed by becoming recipients of the unbounded grace of the Jagadguru and Goddess Sharadambal.
