Jagadguru Shankaracharya
Sri Sri Sri Bharati Tirtha
Mahasannidhanam

Sri Adi Shankara Bhagavatpadacharya, the great philosopher saint of the 8th century CE is widely revered as the first national integrator who had envisioned unified Bharata. Travelling across the country on foot, Sri Adi Shankaracharya united the people with our rich culture & tradition. He propagated the philosophy of Advaita (non-dualism) which proclaims the oneness in this world.

Jagadguru Shankaracharya
Sri Sri Sri Vidhushekhara Bharati
Sannidhanam

In order to sustain and carry out the mission of spreading Dharma and the Advaita philosophy in the society for generations to come, Sri Adi Shankaracharya established four Aamnaya Peethams, spiritual learning centres in the four directions of Bharata. The first and foremost of these Aamnaya Peethams is the Dakshinamnaya Sri Sharada Peetham at Sringeri. Sri Adi Shankaracharya consecrated Goddess Sharada, the Divinity of Knowledge here and appointed His most erudite disciple, Sri Sureshwaracharya to head the Peetham. Ever since, the Peetham has been a beacon light of Sanatana Vaidika Dharma and Vedanta.

In the 14th century, the present golden idol of Goddess Sharadamba was consecrated. In the beginning of the 20th century, the splendid granite temple structure was constructed by the 33rd Acharya, Jagadguru Sri Sacchidananda Shivabhinava Narasimha Bharati Mahaswamiji. The Kumbhabhisheka of Goddess in the completed temple structure took place in 1916 and was performed by the 34th Acharya, Jagadguru Sri Chandrashekhara Bharati Mahaswamiji. Subsequent Kumbhabhishekas were performed by the 35th Acharya (Jagadguru Sri Abhinava Vidyatirtha Mahaswamiji) and the 36th Acharya (Jagadguru Sri Bharati Tirtha Mahaswamiji) in 1963 and 1993 respectively.

His Holiness Jagadguru Shankaracharya of Dakshinamnaya Sri Sringeri Sharada Peetham, Sri Sri Bharati Tirtha Mahaswamiji has directed that the historic Golden Gopura Kumbhabhisheka Celebration, be conducted in all grandeur and in the tradition of our Peetham. The Dharmic activities connected with the Kumbhabhisheka include Laksha Modaka Homa, Ati Rudra Maha Yaga, Sahasra Chandika Maha Yaga and Koti Kumkuma Archana to Sri Sharadamba. As part of the Mahotsav, there will be a Cultural Programme every evening by well acclaimed artists.

I request all devotees to participate in this historic event and be the recipient of the benign blessings of Goddess Sharadamba and Their Holinesses Mahasannidhanam and Sannidhanam.
